ANTIOCH LEGION SPONSORS FREE ICE SKATING RINK

Donations of Local Business Men Make Winter Playground Possible

Through the generosity of a number of Antioch men, collaborating with the American Legion, an ice skating rink will be made available to Antioch winter sports fans within the next few days.

Already the site of the rink, south of the Gamble store on the used car lot of the Antioch Garage, has been banked with dirt preparatory to flooding.

The rink will be sponsored by the American Legion and will be open to the public, free of charge.

Donate Site

Elmer Brook, administrator of the Wedge Estate, upon which the pond will be located, and W. A. Rosing, who holds a lease on the lot, have arranged free use of the property for the duration of the winter.

After the site had been surveyed by Jim McMillen, Carl Barthel, highway commissioner of Antioch township, provided trucks to haul dirt to construct the banks around the skating surface. Dirt and gravel was donated by Jim Buckley.

Water for flooding the converted car lot will be contributed by the city board, with the Fire Department wielding the hose as their bit towards the project.

Seats Planned

Lighting facilities will be provided by Mr. Rosing, and plank seats will be installed around the border of the rink, lumber for which will be donated by Ed Vos in behalf of the Lions club.

Just when the area will be flooded depends upon the weather, but if temperatures continue under the freezing point the rink should be ready for use within a week or ten days at the latest.

Corn Loans are now Available to Farmers

Lake county farmers who are eligible for 1937-38 federal corn loans of 50 cents a bushel may file their applications at the office of the Lake County Agricultural Conservation Committee, according to information received by Farm Adviser H. C. Glickerson through the extension service of the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Loans will be available after Dec. 1, it is thought, and until April 1, 1938. Bearing 4 per cent interest, the loans will become due 10 months following the date on which they are made, with no maturity later than Nov. 1, 1938.

Only farm owners or tenants who will receive payments for cooperating in the 1937 agricultural conservation program are eligible to borrow under the corn loan program. To be eligible as security for a corn loan, corn must have been produced on a farm operated in cooperation with the 1937 agricultural conservation program.

Generally, the corn loan program will operate along the lines followed in previous programs. However, for the first time the corn loan program will be administered by the service facilities made available by the county agricultural conservation committee of the AAA.

On Monday afternoon after school the entire faculty will attend an extension class to be conducted by Dr. John Guy Fowlkes of the University of Wisconsin at Kenosha High school. "Grades and Honors" will be discussed by Dr. Fowlkes.

Memorial Service Held for Founder of Allendale Farm

Memorial services for Edward J. Bradley, 76, founder of Allendale Farm who was killed last Friday in an auto accident on the west coast, were held at 2:30 this afternoon at the Lake Villa boys' school.

Mr. Bradley lost his life when struck by a car at Santa Barbara, California. He had made Santa Barbara his winter home since retiring from active leadership of Allendale Farm in 1934, and had only recently completed construction of a new home there.

Rites and cremation took place in Santa Barbara earlier in the week. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Maude Menefee Bradley. They had no children.

Mr. Bradley came to Illinois in 1894 to become choir leader of the Episcopal church of Riverside. He had been graduated from Princeton University in 1884. In 1895 he conceived the idea of bringing his choir boys to Lake Villa, on the present site of Allendale Farm, for a summer camping period.

After conducting the camp for two years he opened it to other boys, and because of its popularity decided to operate it as a year-round school. Allendale Farm was incorporated in 1897.

Even after his retirement three years ago, Mr. Bradley continued to spend his summers at Allendale. He was succeeded as head of the school by Raymond A. Thompson, one of his former students.

Local Phone Users Will Profit Little By Lowered Rates

Telephone users in Antioch will benefit little by the reduction in rates of the Illinois Bell Telephone company just ordered to the Illinois Commerce Commission to be effective after Jan. 1, it was stated today by District Manager A. H. Andrews.

Rural phone users will profit by the reduction of rates in two classifications. Eight party business service was reduced from $3 to $2.25 per month, and eight party residence service from $2.25 to $1.75.

While no changes are to be made in the basic local rates in Antioch, users here will share in the savings made possible by elimination of the extra monthly charge on hand set (French) phones, by reductions in rates for extra directory listings and through certain wiring plans.

During the investigation, the commission examined the rates in all cities and towns operated by the Illinois Bell. The commission's order indicated that some exchanges in the state provide a considerably lower rate of return than others, a number of them showing no profit and some even showing an operating loss. The reductions ordered, therefore, were in those cities and towns where certain rates seemed to the commission to be out of line.

Lake County P.T.A. Council Will Meet Next Monday Night

"Today's Children—Tomorrow's Citizens; P. T. A. Responsibilities" will be the theme of the meeting of the Lake County Council of Parent-Teachers associations to be held Monday at Gages Lake school house at 8 p. m.

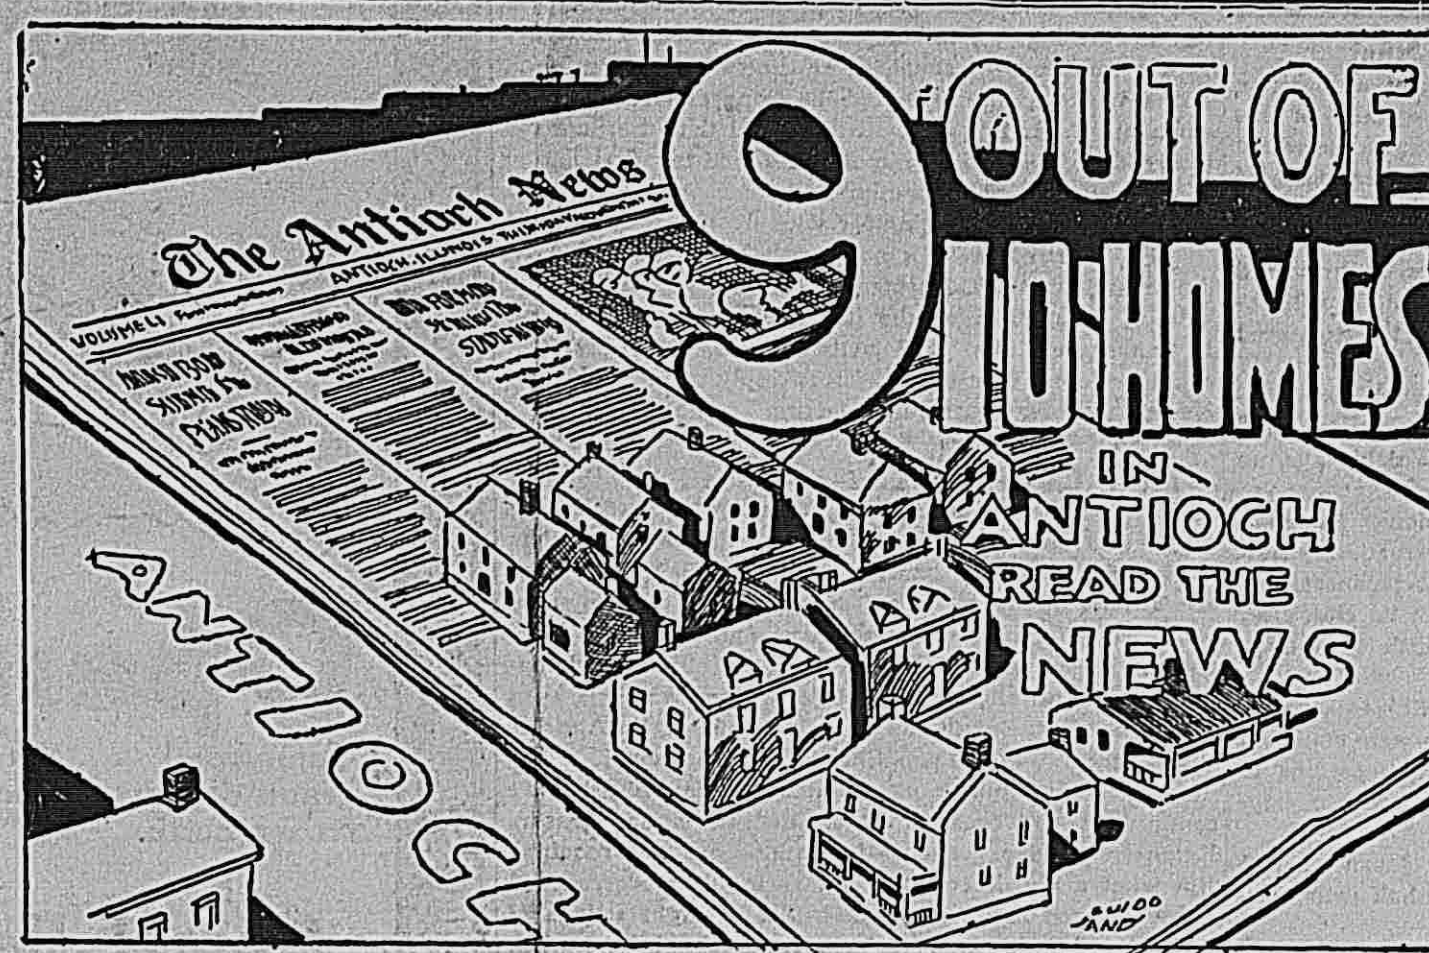

The purpose of the county council is described as "A medium to give local presidents and delegates an opportunity to counsel together; give time for general discussion of local work and cooperative projects, and pass on information concerning National and Illinois projects."

Mrs. Nelle Vos and Mrs. Elmer Brinkman have been elected to represent the Antioch organization at the meeting, and Mrs. Martha Hunter, president of the local association, and Principal Ralph E. Clabaugh will be ex-officio delegates.

Three Antioch residents are on the staff of officers. W. C. Petty is first vice president, Mrs. Paul Chase is second vice president and Mr. Clabaugh, chairman of the ways and means committee. Mrs. W. G. Zeigler of Round Lake is president.

The council will hear addresses by Mrs. E. C. Bock of Lake Forest, Miss Norma Effner of Waukegan, Instructor of State Police Edward Enone and Paul J. Waldberg, state safety engineer of Elgin. The first two will speak on "What Is Mental Hygiene?" and the latter two on "Highway Safety."

Music and a playlet will complete the program, after which refreshments will be served.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS SEAL DRIVE STARTS

Campaign Against Tuberculosis Will Be Carried on With Proceeds

Once again the Christmas Seals bearing the double-barred cross have been delivered to homes and business houses throughout the land. Upon generous purchase of the gay holiday stickers depends the successful continuation of the nationwide fight against tuberculosis.

Each seal bearing the jovial Town Crier which is placed on a gift package, Christmas card or envelope will aid in the campaign. Men and women are urged to buy them with even greater generosity than in years past, now that the power of the colorful bits of paper has been proved.

In recent years, the annual campaign has been netting in the neighborhood of $4,500,000—an immense increase over the receipts of $3,000 gained in 1907 when Author Jacob Riis introduced the sale of anti-T. B. seals.

The people of Lake county, with their purchase of Christmas Seals last year, made it possible for the Lake County Tuberculosis association to conduct 23 clinics since Jan. 1, 1937. In the 11 months, 1,042 patients have attended these clinics; of these, 208 were new patients, 112 of whom were children.

These figures show the necessity of continuing the work of the clinic, and its continuation depends upon the generous support of the Christmas Seal campaign—which is the county tuberculosis association's only income. The next chest clinic will be conducted by the association at the St. Therese hospital in Waukegan on Wednesday, Dec. 8, between the hours of 9 and 12 a. m. and from 1 to 3 p. m. Examination is free to anyone unable to pay for the service.

Utilization of forest waste is the purpose of the laboratory, which conducts research to find commercial use for sawdust and poor lumber and to discover methods of preserving lumber which will extend its period of usefulness.

While in Madison, the class was guided through the capitol building, where they learned many facts about the materials used in its construction, the famous paintings and the history and political make-up of Wisconsin.

Members of the class had just completed a three weeks study of farm forestry under the direction of Mr. Kutil.

Those who made the trip to Madison were: Robert Denman, Donald Elfering, James Nielson, Robert Hall, Donald Truax, Orville Winfield, Harold Rudolph, Russel Homan and Wilson King.

King's to Throw Open Toyland Tomorrow at 3

The balcony of King's Drug Store has been revamped during the past couple of weeks and tomorrow will present itself as a Toyland haven for Christmas-minded Antioch youngsters.

There they may feast their eyes on the wonders Santa Claus has produced during the past year—and get a line on what to request of St. Nick for this Christmas.

For the time being, the Toyland will be open each day after 3 p. m., except on Saturdays when it will be open throughout the day.

Dr. Preston Bradley To Address Meeting of Business Clubs

Members of the Men's Civic club have been invited to hold a joint dinner meeting with the Business and Professional Women's club next Thursday, following which the combined groups will be addressed by Dr. Preston Bradley, pastor of the Peoples Church of Chicago.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. at the high school.

Dr. Bradley, who has held his present church post for the past 25 years, has made a number of previous appearances in Antioch and is remembered as an unusually forceful and entertaining speaker.

His Sunday morning services, which are broadcast over radio station WJJD, attract on the average of 1,500 persons. Besides his church work, Dr. Bradley is a past National President of the Izaak Walton League of America.

He has also written three inspirational books, "Courage for Today," "Mastering Fear" and "Power from Right Thinking."

Members of the Civic club who plan to attend the dinner meeting are urged to obtain tickets from Otto Klass as soon as possible. Tuesday is the absolute deadline for purchasing tickets; none will be sold after that day.

Members of the women's organization can make reservations through either Mrs. H. B. Gaston or Mrs. Thomas Hunt.

Antioch Boys Visit Madison Laboratory

Nine vocational agriculture students from the Farm Products class of Antioch High school, accompanied by their instructor, C. L. Kutil, visited the U. S. Forest Products laboratory at Madison, Wis., last Wednesday.

This laboratory, according to Mr. Kutil, is the largest of its kind in the world and was the first one established. Since its construction, five other nations have founded similar institutions.

Utilization of forest waste is the purpose of the laboratory, which conducts research to find commercial use for sawdust and poor lumber and to discover methods of preserving lumber which will extend its period of usefulness.

While in Madison, the class was guided through the capitol building, where they learned many facts about the materials used in its construction, the famous paintings and the history and political make-up of Wisconsin.

Members of the class had just completed a three weeks study of farm forestry under the direction of Mr. Kutil.

Those who made the trip to Madison were: Robert Denman, Donald Elfering, James Nielson, Robert Hall, Donald Truax, Orville Winfield, Harold Rudolph, Russel Homan and Wilson King.

INCREASE IN TAX ASSESSMENTS DUE

$2,000,000 Boost in County Property Values Expected for 1938

Taxable property values in Lake county are expected to draw an assessment of some $2,000,000 more for the coming year than in 1937, according to reports from the county seat.

All three sources of county tax receipts—railroads, capital stock and county real and personal property—are due to contribute more than they did during the current year.

As the increased assessment values placed on railroads and capital stock will likely approximate $1,375,000, the county board of review will be obliged to boost assessments on real and personal property around $625,000 to make the total increase in taxable values reach the proposed $2,000,000.

This would mean a rise in assessed value of real and personal property from $77,185,000, as of last year, to $79,185,000.

An increase of a million dollars in the valuation of railroad property is anticipated. The valuation as submitted by the state tax commission for 1936 was $5,186,118.

Total capital stock assessments by the state tax commission are $837,000 for 1937, as compared to $462,250 the year before.

Comparative capital stock assessments prepared by Frank Hamlin, of the county clerk's tax extension department, show at least nine communities that have corporate capital stock in 1937 that had none in 1936.

Among these is Antioch, with assessed capital stock of $3,700 for 1937. Others of the group were: Fox Lake, $1,850; Grayslake, $1,100; Barrington, $1,100; and Mundelein, $35,800.

Rites for Mrs. Webb Conducted Wednesday

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Margaret Medora Webb, 77, who died Monday a few hours after suffering a heart attack. The rites were conducted at Strang's Funeral Home by Rev. W. C. Henslee and burial was in Millburn cemetery.

Mrs. Webb is survived by a daughter, Miss Elizabeth Webb, and a son, Raymond L. Webb.

Among the persons from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mrs. H. B. Johnson, Mrs. Richard Anderson and Mr. M. A. Melloy of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. N. Fey, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cook and Miss V. Brainard of Burlington, Wis.; Miss Ada Miltmore and Mrs. Lloyd White of Waukegan; Dr. Myles Hulet of Union Grove and Mrs. Walter Loefer of Lake Forest.

Mrs. Webb spent practically all her life in Lake county, being born in Millburn and living the last 45 years of her life in Antioch. Her parents were genuine Lake county pioneers.

She was born on June 23, 1860, the daughter of William Emerson Thayer and Janet Strang Thayer. On Nov. 21, 1883 she was married to George Edgar Webb, who preceded her in death, May 11, 1918.

Mrs. Webb was aptly characterized by the Rev. Mr. Henslee as "a mother beloved, a friend tried and true, and a neighbor of real worth."

SIGHT TEST PLANNED

Students at Antioch High school will be tested by a representative of the state safety council tomorrow and Monday to determine their ability to meet vision requirements essential to safe driving.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY FOR PIERCE IN JUDGE ELECTION

Republicans Press Campaign to Overcome Pay-roller Vote

Victory for William L. Pierce, Belvidere lawyer, in the special election next Tuesday for circuit judge in the seventeenth district to succeed the late Edward D. Shurtleff, was predicted today by Benjamin H. Miller, chairman of the Lake County Republican Central committee.

Chairman Miller said:

"Mr. Pierce will carry every one of the four counties in the district. Lake county will give him a substantial majority and McHenry and Boone counties will also favor him. His smallest majority is expected to be in Winnebago county which went Democratic at the last election."

Sharing the opinion of Republican victory held by Chairman Miller, is William M. Marks, secretary of the county central committee, who has been handling the campaign publicity.

"All the Republican workers have to do is to overcome the Democratic payroller vote in the district," Secretary Marks told the News today. "There are approximately 800 persons on the state payroll in the four counties, and I understand that demand is made of each one to deliver 50 votes. If they do only half that well they will round up a total of 20,000. At the last judicial election, June 8, 1933, when four candidates were running, the late Judge Shurtleff, low candidate for the Republicans, received 23,842 votes to 21,848 for his Democratic opponent, Charles E. Carpenter of Crystal Lake. There will be a light vote, probably not in excess of 22,000 for both candidates, but I predict victory for Mr. Pierce by a wide margin."

Smart Politics

Smart politics has had a part in the campaign, and Governor Horner started off by calling the election for an obscure day so that the Democratic payrollers presumably would stand some show of controlling the election. Astute political railbirds, however, believe the normal Republican majorities in the counties will more than offset this advantage, and they believe also that Democratic party leaders have made the mistake of choosing George R. Lyon, a Lake county man, instead of some candidate from either McHenry or Boone county, neither of which has a circuit judge.

Lake county has a resident judge in Judge Dady of Waukegan, and Winnebago has Judge Arthur E. Fisher of Rockford. The late Judge Shurtleff was a resident of Marengo in McHenry county. It is believed, and it has always been the custom for the two middle counties of the district to have one judge on the circuit bench.

Pierce Well Qualified

Attesting the qualifications of Candidate Pierce is the fact that about 90 per cent of the practicing attorneys in Lake county have endorsed the Belvidere lawyer because of his known ability as a jurist, legislator, orator and counselor. Besides serving in the state legislature he was also formerly mayor of his home city.

Pierce's Democratic opponent, George R. Lyon, is a native of Waukegan, whose law office is in Chicago where he is associated with a law firm.

Pair of Antioch Hunters Bring Home the Venison

There'll be fresh venison on the menu at Einar Sorenson's Channel Lake resort the next few days; Proprietor Sorenson returned the first of the week with the raw material after a week-end hunting trip to Bay View County, Wisconsin.

Fire Chief James Stearns will also enter the restaurant business—in a purely amateur way—as a result of an equally successful trek to the Wisconsin woods. Stearns pulled into town Tuesday with a fine deer strapped to his car and plans a venison feed for members of the Antioch Fire Department.

MASON VICTIM OF LOVE BUG

As far as State's Attorney Charles E. Mason of Waukegan is concerned, the Love Bug and the flu germ are one and the same. Three years ago he was seriously ill with influenza. Miss Doris M. Hawk, nurse at the Victory Memorial hospital, was sent to care for him. Well, to make a familiar story short, they obtained the marriage license Saturday and will be wed on Christmas Day at the bride's home in Waukegan. They will make their home in Gurnee.

The Bear and the Bees' Nest

A pamphlet aimed to discourage talk of a Japanese boycott has been circulated among newspapers of this country during the past week by an organization which describes itself as the Japanese Chamber of Commerce of New York. It states that such a boycott would accomplish two things. First, it would hurt America rather than Japan as Japan is our third best customer, surpassed only by Canada and Great Britain. Second, it will inflict a grave injustice upon Japan, who is "the aggrieved party—the aggressor, not the aggressor."

We herewith present the tearful plea of the poor, misunderstood Japs—as presented in 65 pages of print—and the thoughts which occurred to us as we dabbed at an occasional run-away tear.

"Chinese Militarism, backed by Communist Imperialism, struck at Japan. Japan, for self-preservation, struck back. That is the naked truth of the Sino-Japanese hostilities." "Of course, if Japan hadn't stuck its chin clear across the China Sea, there'd have been little temptation for the Chinese to swing at it."

"The present conflict was caused by Chinese troops' irregular attacks on Japanese troops which were stationed in North China (Oh, in North China, huh?) according to treaty stipulations." (Which China signed with a bayonet prodding her in the back.)

"After the outbreak of the trouble Japan tried to settle locally." ("Say 'Uncle' and give me half your marbles—and I'll let you up.")

"China is responsible for the aggravation of the situation (so you admit there WAS a situation) because she disregarded Japan's nonaggression policy (her what-kind-of policy?) and mobilized a huge number of troops against Japan." (Outrageous!)

"This forced Japan to take military action. ("You'll say 'Uncle' or take a bust in the teeth. "Japan's military operations in China today have been entirely caused by China's provocative attitude. (Wait a minute, you haven't explained yet what you were doing in China's back yard in the first place.) Japan's action is entirely in self-defense." (Get back in your own yard, Shorty, and you won't have to defend yourself.)

"Japan has no territorial ambitions." (Then how come you took Manchukuo in tow? And what WERE you doing in North China?)

"Accordingly, Japan's action in China violates no existing treaties in any way whatever. On the contrary, China is carrying out her stubborn anti-Japanese policy, incited by Red influence, is planning to drive out Japanese rights and interests from China by force of arms." (Doesn't want to give up half the marbles, eh?)

To which we can only add, the bear who robs the bees' nest must expect to get stung.

The Country Press on the Supreme Court Issue

At the end of the first session of the current Congress, it was believed that the Supreme Court issue would again be introduced at the next session.

Since that time, the feeling has grown that, due to the size and influence of Congressional opposition, the issue is dead, and may not see the light of day again.

If the country press of the nation accurately reflects the temper of the American people, the issue is dead indeed.

The Industrial News Review recently sent a questionnaire to 12,585 country papers asking four direct, non-leading questions concerning possible Court changes. More than 2,300 papers replied. Proposed legislation that would permit the President to appoint additional Justices, was opposed by 90.4 per cent; 71.6 per cent were opposed to the proposal that a two-thirds vote of the Court be required to declare acts of Congress unconstitutional; 72 per cent were opposed to any bill forcing Justices to retire at an age fixed by law. And 88.3 per cent were opposed to a constitutional amendment limiting the authority of the Court over acts of Congress.

There was a remarkable consistency in the views of editors in far separated states, showing sentiment solidified against Court changes, irrespective of sectional politics and feelings. The completed questionnaires, together with a multitude of supplemental notes and letters, indicate that these editors—as did the Congressional majority when the Court bill was voted on—feel that the Supreme Court is the bulwark of our liberties, and our first line of defense against dictatorship, and that it would be a national catastrophe to tamper with it.

The country press is not swayed by momentary enthusiasms, or political hysteria. It looks at issues in the light of their effect on the fundamentals of government. It thinks them out. And no better example of this fact could be found than in the editors' reply to the Industrial News Review's Court questionnaire.

Christmas Comes But . . .

To paraphrase a familiar quotation, if there's anything that gives a community more of a "lift" than Christmas spirit—it's more Christmas spirit. Thoughts are turning to the purchase of gifts, store windows are taking on a holiday tone, advertisements are urging one and all to "Shop Early"—and the post office is admonishing one and all to Mail Early. All of which is as it should be. . . . But there's something missing in Antioch. Where are the downtown Christmas decorations?

Community spirit and community pride will prompt a community to "dress up" for the Christmas season. Extensive—and expensive—decorations are not required. But what a big difference a few sprigs of evergreen and a few colored lights can make! Six or eight strings of vari-colored bulbs and perhaps some simple evergreen wreaths for the lamp posts, that enough.

When red and green lights were strung across Main street in observance of a festive event a few summers back, some big-city wiseacre inquired at the News office whether Antioch was just getting up its Christmas decorations—six months in arrears. Yuletide visitors, noting the conspicuous absence of holiday regalia which at present marks the business district, may well think that the town is as backward as the smart aleck wrongfully inferred.

Remember, Christmas comes but once a year. We can afford a few pennies to help make it the big occasion it should be: Let's "doll up" the old town a bit.

Burying the Hatchet?

The president's announcement to the effect that the government is considering burying the hatchet it has been using to scalp the electric utility industry, and his calling of a conference with utility leaders, is a step that should have been taken long ago. Everyone will hope that peace is in sight, and that this "truce" doesn't turn out to be a tempest in a teapot, as did the series of conferences held a year ago concerning the TVA and the private companies in the Southeast, which accomplished exactly nothing.

The utilities are more than $2,000,000,000 behind in construction, based on what their expenditures would have been had they not been subjected to continual political strafing. This year utility spending for capital investment will be substantially larger than in any of the last few years, simply because increasing public demand for power makes plant expansion necessary—but, even so, it will be less than half of the billion dollars that utility experts believe the industry would normally spend annually.

It is rumored that under the new federal plan, as yet not officially announced, utilities will be protected in their territories from subsidized government competition, and that they will be subjected to less attack.

A program of fair dealing by government would assure the maximum betterment of utility service, and would release a vast reservoir of spending power that has been unnecessarily dammed up by ruthless politics.

LAKE VILLA SCHOOL NEWS

Upper Grades

Over the Thanksgiving vacation there was a case of scarlet fever. Monday when we all came back to school, Mr. Dixon sent home the pupils of the rooms that had a cold or sore throat.

The pupils of the 6th, 7th and 8th grades are putting on a play for the P. T. A. It is going to be a Christmas play.

We had four days, including Thursday and Friday, of vacation. I think we all had a fine vacation.

Bill Effinger and Marjorie MacLaren are absent today. Bill is sick with a cold, and Marjorie has gone away.

The "Junior Citizens Club" had a meeting November 29. We would like to go and see the stock show.

We are going to bring a few pennies for our Red Cross pins.

Intermediate Room

Everyone enjoyed the Thanksgiving vacation.

Betty Barlett is hostess for the week.

Bobby Klein, while riding on his bicycle fell through the ice on Crooked Lake. Both Bobby and the bike were soaked but no other harm resulted.

We are learning Christmas carols. Junior Miller was absent Monday—Turkey?

We have many new poems ready for our poem books.

Primary Room

Tommy Saltzgeber is back with us again, but he has no tonsils now.

Bruce Hamlin went to visit his mother over Thanksgiving and isn't back yet.

Ronald and Kathleen are still vacationing.

We are sorry that Jeanette Slazes cannot be with us for a while.

Glove-and-Bag Ensemble Is Latest

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

LOOK to your accessories!

This is a fact when the accessory theme reigns uppermost in the minds of designers. Fashion demands accessory items that not only tune to a nicely to your costume but they must radiate glamor and be as elegant "as thy purse can buy."

So all-important, so outstanding has this idea of smart accessories become in the scheme of things, 'twould almost seem as if the clothes we wear were made to serve merely as a background to show off the swank, the splendor and romance of the added accents in way of jewelry, gloves, handbags and belts, headwear, neckwear, footwear and even the very "hankies" we carry or proudly display in capricious little pockets that may not be so utilitarian as they are decorative.

Especially do handbags reflect this trend of the mode to indulge in elegance and glamor. Leathers are softer, trimmings are more startling and to add to the fuss and furor now raging in behalf of accessories, designers have worked to achieve matching ensembles of bag and gloves which make it simple for the woman of impeccable taste to dress up to her standard.

The illustration shows a trio of perfectly stunning ensembles by David Lewis, American designer, noted for his leather artistry. Here gloves and handbags are matched in a manner so striking the entire costume takes on an air so smart there is none smarter.

Black with gold accents is the favorite language of fashion these times. It's gold and glamor that makes its way into the styling of the handsome and distinctive dressy afternoon and cocktail set to the right below in the picture. For this ensemble the softest of black antelope is used in a frameless skirt-type bag with black bengaline to line it. Gussets of gold kid are set in with inverted pleats both front and back. The soft handles have the "feel" of luxury and the slide-fastener closing adds the practical note. The matching black antelope slip-on gloves are hand-stitched and have gold details, but the back of the glove is devoid of any knuckle stitching which cites an important trend this season.

Tiny perforations are one of the newest style notes in leather. You will undoubtedly see bag-and-glove sets as pictured to the left above at the smartest places. Black perforated antelope soft as a kitten's ear is used for this ensemble—the air-conditioned idea carried out even to one's accessories. The bag is beautifully lined with slipper satin. The short pull-on gloves to match are handstitched and have a corded binding at the wrist but no stitching on the backs.

One of the loveliest of the Lewis tailored bags (see pictured to right above) is simple and squarish in shape, with white cross-stitched whipped edges. The handles are set on the bag with tiny cross stitches, which is the only trim. A slide-fastener gives a wide opening for convenience. This bag comes in grand fall accessory colors and is made of antelope, lined with bengaline. Short pull-on gloves with matching cross stitches around the fingers and the entire glove make this set a striking example of how American designers are keyed to create what the American women want and will wear. Such lovely accessories thrill us with the knowledge that we are correct even to the fingertips.

KNIT THIS SUIT

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

A two-piece suit that looks like a three-piece one, such is this smart outfit of lustre knitting yarn. It is knitted in a waffle pattern in a manner that makes it firm and reliable in wearing. The wide lapels and jabot are knitted separately and then sewn to the jacket. A smart cut-away line makes the jacket take on a trimly tailored and up-to-the-moment style.

LAME HEADS LIST OF PARIS FABRICS

Lame heads the list of important fabrics in the Paris couturiers' winter collections, for fabric designers have adapted the metallic material for broader use than ever before.

Lame is no longer simply lame. There are flower print lames in colors; simple heavy gold and silver cloths draped into enchanting evening gowns, iridescent materials with glowing silky stripes; "gold dust" lames; plaid and checkered metallic fabrics and lame moires.

Velvet in all its forms from the sheerest of chiffon velvet through Lyons and even corduroy are distinctive and feature in costumes for wear at every hour of the day. Cut velvets backed with colors or metal tones provide luxurious evening fabrics.

Four-Way Costume Is Back in New Wool and Velveteen

The four-way costume returns this fall with added popularity in a new plaid wool and velveteen version that is especially appropriate for college or general school wear.

There is a two-piece plaid dress of the shirtwaist type that comes in black, brown, wine or green, with a boxy swagger velveteen jacket and skirt with front panel of the predominant color of the plaid.

The velveteen jacket is practical in that it may be worn with other dresses and skirts.

Sequins for Glitter

Glittering sequins embroidery trims hundreds of new fall frocks. Among the motifs which brighten sober dresses are stained glass window patterns, fireworks designs and Louis XV bowknots.

The Army's Distinguished Service Cross is for extraordinary heroism in war; the Navy Cross for a similar service. And over them comes the Medal of Honor (Army or Navy), the highest decoration given by the United States.

Napoleon Named It

Camembert is a soft rennet cheese made from cow's milk. It is purchased most often wrapped in tin-foil and packed in small wooden boxes. Camembert is covered with a moldy rind, under which the cheese is soft and creamy in consistency. The flavor is pronounced. Napoleon is thought to have named this cheese.

Severe War Epidemic
Notable among epidemics during a war, was the killing of 21,000 of the 24,000 French troops by typhus, as they laid siege to Naples in 1528.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 28.

The Golden Text was, "Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good" (Proverbs 14:22).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon were the following from the Bible: "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them" (Matthew 7:15-16, 18-20).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Animal magnetism has no scientific foundation, for God governs all that is real, harmonious, and eternal, and His power is neither animal nor human" (p. 102).

The success of our Thanksgiving Service was in excess of our expectation. About sixty were present of whom probably twenty gave personal expression of thanks, most of which were for spiritual rather than material values.

"The Irresistible Christians" of last Sunday's address are those who live as Christ lived, pray with the same faith, have the same trust in God's promises, and who constantly seek a closer fellowship with God. Such Christ-like Christians will, like their Master, draw all men. The subject for next Sunday will be "Light." The text, "Let There Be Light."

We are glad to welcome Miss Marion Spangard back at our organ. Her presence will add much to the worship service, as well as release Miss Ruth Nelson whose voice is greatly needed in the choir. The church and choir, including the pastor, are grateful to Miss Nelson for graciously coming to our assistance in an hour of need.

Next Monday evening at 7:30 the regular monthly business meeting will be held at the church. This is not for officials only, but for the entire church. This is also the first quarterly "Settlement Day." All pledges to the church should be up to date that all bills of the church may be paid.

The meeting of the Ladies Aid society with Mrs. B. R. Burke was well attended. Mrs. W. C. Petty gave a very interesting review of the book "Citadel" by A. J. Cronin, after which a delightful lunch was served.

A '37 Slant on This Week in The News of 1901

EDITORIAL EXCERPTS: "The announcement of Carnegie's latest gift of $2,000,000 to a library filled only six lines in the press dispatches, whereas a few years ago it would have received columns of comment. Even philanthropy on a large scale becomes an everyday matter with Mr. Carnegie, the most munificent of givers."

"Congress is such an uncertain body that no one can tell what it will do until it assembles, and often not then." And 36 years haven't made a heck of a lot of difference.

Much to-do was being made about the immigration act excluding Chinese from the United States, to which ye editor remarked: "Why should China object to an exclusion act? She built a great wall to enforce one of her own, some years ago."

ANTIOCH HAPPENINGS: Chas. Pullen took in Grayslake Monday. A. J. Snell wanted to attend a party, but was afraid to do so on account of pains in his stomach, which he feared would grow worse. (Pardon us. That was just the start of one of the cursed patent medicine "reader ads" that dotted the personal columns of the day.)

On Thursday evening of last week the Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church held their reception. During the evening a luncheon was served in the basement by a bevy of young ladies, and an enjoyable time was had. P. S. On reading through the medicine ad mentioned above, guess we'd better give you the rest of the story: Mr. Snell adds, "I was telling my troubles to a lady friend, who said, 'Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will put you in condition for the party.' I bought a bottle and take pleasure in stating that two doses cured me and enabled me to have a good time at the party." All together now, three rousing "rahs" for the Lady Friend!

A Grayslake dispatch, though, lends a more somber touch. "Many people here were grieved to learn of the sudden disappearance of Mr. Peterson and Mrs. August Hintz, of this place, but recently of Waukegan." Maybe a bottle of Chamberlain's would have prevented that, too.

And an Antioch woman offered for sale home-made plasters guaranteed to cure "Rheumatism, Asthma, Lamé Back and Side, Neuralgia, Pleurisy, Bronchial Troubles, Pneumonia, Cramps, Kidney and Heart Disease, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, etc." What about Flat Feet and Dandruff?

or did the "etc." cover those?

Great must have been the relief of Antioch bazaar addicts to learn that "The program at the hankerchief bazaar will be given free, contrary to statements made last week."

NEWS NUGGETS: The divorce suit brought by David Nation against his wife Carrie Nation, the saloon smasher, has begun at Medicine Lodge, Kans. Mr. Nation claims his wife refused to live with him, drew $900 from the bank and took away his feather bed. (Wonder who got custody of the feather bed?)

"Because her name brought ridicule upon her children, Mrs. Martha Damm, wife of a prosperous New York farmer, committed suicide by drowning herself in a cistern." Too sensitive! She simply shouldn't have given a —er—. She just shouldn't have cared.

"Terry McGovern was knocked out in the second round of a fight for the featherweight championship by Young Corbett of Denver, at Hartford, Conn." Let's see; wasn't that the guy they called "Terrible"?

"Winners of gold, silver and bronze medals at the Pan-American Exposition must pay for the cost of manufacturing the medals." Whatdaya mean, "winners"?

Note to David, Duke of Windsor: Look what the boys on the throne could get by with three and a half decades ago. "The Hungarian papers allege that King Alexandra of Serbia desires to divorce Queen Draga in order that he may marry his sister-in-law, Helene Benewitch, and that this accounts for Queen Draga's hysterical outbreaks." (Another of the supersensitive type, no doubt.)

When Queen Wilhelmina of Holland ran into domestic trouble, however, she didn't fall back on hysterics. Said the dispatches: "No scandal which has occurred for the past century has occasioned so much popular feeling as the semi-official announcement that Queen Wilhelmina will apply for a divorce from the prince consort on the grounds of cruelty and improper behavior."

"The progress in cattle breeding in the Southwest has been phenomenal, and from all indications is getting a good start." We get it; colossal, stupendous—in fact, not at all bad.

AMUSEMENTS

Rotnour Troupe Plays To Overflow Audience

Even the "Standing Room Only" sign had to be taken down last Thursday night when a record crowd assembled to see the J. B. Rotnour players in what many in the audience described as "the best play yet."

"The Law of God and Man," which will be presented this Thursday, is described by Mr. Rotnour as "a drama with a touch of underworld, plenty of comedy and a play entirely different from any other presented so far."

A south sea drama, "Lost People," has been announced as the play for next week.

Free tickets can be obtained from any of the 21 merchants listed in the Rotnour advertisement which appears elsewhere in this issue. Curtain time Thursday will be 8:15 sharp, and the doors will open at 7:30.

Vic and Sade, "Radio's most beloved family," will appear in person at the Kenosha Theatre Friday, December 3, for one day only, through courtesy of the NBC Studios, coming to Kenosha immediately after their afternoon broadcast of that date and arriving in time for three performances.

Due to the late afternoon broadcast, Vic and Sade will make their first personal appearance on the Kenosha Theatre stage at 4:45 P. M. and again at 7:30 and 9:30 o'clock.

They will present their sketch of common every day life in a common everyday household in a common mid-western town, just as they do in their daily broadcasts of the "small house halfway up in the next block."

People have been listening to Vic and Sade for so many years, a great many feel that they know them personally, although they have made very few personal appearances due to their daily broadcasts and rehearsals which one hears twice each day, except Saturdays and Sundays.

However, in response to the many requests, the management of the Kenosha Theatre persuaded Vic and Sade and their son, "Rush" to make this one day trip, which will give the listeners a true picture of their friendly radio neighbors.

STANDARD FORD V-8... 112" wheelbase; 85 or 60 horsepower engine; Improved Easy-Action Safety Brakes; Center-Poise Ride; All-steel body; Broadcloth or Mohair upholstery, Mohair extra in "60"; Mahogany-finished trim; One tail light, sun visor; Twin horns; 3 body types; 3 colors.

FORD offers two new cars for 1938—the Standard Ford V-8 and the De Luxe Ford V-8. They are different in appearance—but built to the same high standard of mechanical excellence—on the same chassis.

Because people liked our 1937 car so well, they bought more than of any other make. They liked its looks, its smooth performance, and the way it handled. We have improved on that car in the newly styled Standard Ford V-8.

But some folks wanted still more size and style, with the same Ford advantages. For them, we designed a new De Luxe line.

The De Luxe Ford V-8 Sedans are longer with more room, larger luggage space, and finer appointments all around.

De Luxe cars are equipped with the 85-horsepower engine only.

The Standard is even lower priced than the De Luxe. It has graceful new lines and well-tailored interiors—with a choice of engine sizes—85 or 60 horsepower.

Before Ford made V-type 8-cylinder engines available to every one, they were used only in expensive cars. Since then, four million Ford owners have learned the genuine enjoyment of driving an eight-cylinder car with all-around economy. The thrifty "60" engine, especially, makes possible in Standard models a very low first cost and equally low operating cost. With two distinct designs, two engine sizes and two price ranges, you'll find a 1938 Ford car to fit your needs exactly.

PRICES FOR CARS DELIVERED IN DETROIT—TAXES EXTRA

HOME-SEWING AGAIN RETURNS TO FAVOR

Wealth of Fabrics Is Offered for Busy Needles.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Home sewing is smart again. The women who are sewing again want to sew. They realize that by sewing their own they can afford better materials. And what an Aladdin's cave of fabrics there is at command this season!

In the meanwhile, the following tips may be of service. In evening fabrics brocaded metal silks are absolutely outstanding, post Coronation influence. They are practical as well as luxurious, for the silk core reduces the tarnishing hazards and assures the wearer that the fabric will not pull or sag.

Satin is so beautiful a material that it is not surprising that it remains in fashion. This year black silk satin will be a huge fashion winner. Taffeta is good, too, especially in the moire changeable silk style. The home sewer can bank on silk velvet which shares the fashion spotlight with metal and brocaded silks so far as evening things are concerned. Silk crepes continue their popularity for both day and evening gowns. Remember always that silks do not need any "finishes" to give them wearability.

What colors will the glamour girl wear? Black, black, black! But browns in nearly all shades continue good, while the Paris houses at their recent showings were all strong on spruce and forest greens with a distinct bluish cast. For evening pastel shades continue in favor, but blues of practically all shades as well as the red tones are going to have lots of patrons.

JEWELRY ACCENTS

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

New fall jewelry reflects the glamor which is sweeping through the entire fashion picture. Alberta, one of America's leading costume jewelry designers, has taken inspiration from famous antique court pieces in creating the "grand duchess" huge clip and bracelet shown so effectively here on a simple black afternoon gown. Royal colored cabochon stones are set in antique finished gold metal. Another creation of this famous designer is called "Joan of Arc" because of its medieval inspiration. See it pictured above. Lovely antique silver-finished metal studded with nail-head ornaments make this necklace and bracelet set adaptable to tailored clothes as well as dressier costumes.

Narrow Silhouette Shown in Early Paris Displays

Paris showings display the narrow silhouette, varied in day and evening dresses by loose panels of material placed in the center of the back or details of gathered fullness. Three silver foxes made a novel panel for the back of a black wool day coat. Some models stressed details of front fullness. Day silhouettes were emphasized in straight line jackets reaching below the hip and in satin blouses along the same lines.

Long cape ensembles were shown, some lined with fur, with fur-trimmed dresses.

Model Mate

After 50 years of observation Arthur Cleveland Brent, of the Smithsonian Institution, reveals that the red-shouldered hawk is the matrimonial model of birdhood. These birds marry very young, never desert their wives, and always live in the homes they stake out, even putting up no-trespassing signs made of fresh sprigs of evergreen. Most amazing of all is the elation with which they decorate the nest with violets when there's a new addition to the family.

Rural Fires Waste $225,000,000 a Year

Farmers' Greatest Problem, Declares
Price, U. S. Expert

Fire-safe Roofs, Good
Equipments Factors
in Campaign
Against Loss

By DAVID J. PRICE
U. S. Department of Agriculture

Take out your watch and hold it in your hand. Watch the tiny hand tick off a full minute. Then reflect that in that minute, someone on a farm or in a rural community was the victim of a $400 fire loss.

That's a graphic way of understanding that the total fire loss in the United States of farm and rural communities amounts close to $225,000,000 every year. Fires on farms cost more than $100,000,000 annually. Fires in rural communities of 2,500 population and under add $125,000,000 more to this amazing waste. Approximately 3,500 lives are the toll to humanity.

The $100,000,000 that is lost in farm buildings alone annually would pay the total cost of constructing New York City's Empire State Building, the National Capitol in Washington, and the Normandie, France's queen of the seas. But more interesting to the farmer is the fact that the annual loss by fire on farms alone would build 40,000 new farm homes at $2,500 each—or 50,000 brand new barns.

The responsibility rests with the farmer himself. He must be his own fireman, fire chief and fire inspector. More than that, he must be his own building inspector and zoning officer. Studying his proper course in the fulfilling of these duties, he will find that he can reduce fire hazards on his property to a minimum. In this work, the National Fire Protection Association stands ready to help by providing information gained after long research.

The barns, in which hay and straw are used, should be separated by at least 100 feet, preferably 150 feet, from the house. Non-combustible or fire-resistant construction materials should be used as far as possible. Wherever possible, the buildings should be arranged so that prevailing winds blow at right-angles to a line connecting house and barn, rather than parallel to such a line.

Exclusive of the losses ascribed to unknown causes, overheated and defective chimneys and flues, sparks on roofs, and lightning are responsible for approximately 50 per cent of the total losses from farm fires. Stoves and furnaces should be properly installed and operated. Frequent inspection must be made of chimneys to keep them clear of sooty accumulations. Fire-resistant roofing should be used wherever possible, especially on the principal buildings. On days of high wind and stone draft, soot accumulations result in sparks that are a constant menace to the wooden shingle roof. Fire-resistant roofing also eliminates the danger of flying brands from burning wood shingles that carry fire so readily to nearby buildings.

Protection against lightning by means of a system of grounded conductors should be an integral part of protection on the farm. Care in the operation of stoves and furnaces, in the handling of lamps, proper storing of kerosene and gasoline, the disposal of ashes, even when they appear to be dead, the systematic disposal of rubbish are other factors in cutting down the huge and unnecessary fire loss. Fire-stopping—the closing of all open spaces in hollow walls at the floor line so that the fire will not spread quickly from one story to another—is an important phase of the construction of the farm house.

The storage of hay before it is well cured has caused many barn fires through spontaneous ignition. Spontaneous ignition unquestionably is responsible for a great percentage of the fires which are reported as "origin unknown."

The farm's fire-fighting equipment should be regularly inspected. Ladders should be placed at strategic points. Many a wood shingle roof has been caught in time only because a ladder was available. Fire pails should be kept filled and used for no other purpose under any consideration. An extra supply of water should also be made available in barrels or casks so that pails may be refilled quickly. Hand-force pumps and hose should be kept on hand to guard against the dangers of a spark-catching roof and there are various types of fire extinguishers which the farmer should have, ready for immediate use. More than that, he and all members of the family should school themselves in the use of this equipment just as does the city fire-fighter who protects the taxpayers' property.

Community fire protection, comparatively new in rural districts, already has proved its worth and such organizations are increasing rapidly. However, it is still true that primary responsibility for fire on his farm rests on the farmer and his cooperation or failure will depend on his care in providing proper equipment, alone with the use of fire-resistant materials in buildings and on roofs where possible.

Cheese Note

"Bleu" is the name applied to several kinds of hard rennet cheese made from the cow's milk in imitation of Roquefort cheese. There is a mottled or veined appearance to this type of cheese. The origin is French.

"Turnabout" Cactus

The "turnabout" cactus found in Jamaica is so called because it turns night into day by blooming regularly only after dark. Its flowers are exquisite and creamy white, and emit a delicate perfume.

Fleeing Rat Carries Young
The russet-brown rat of the islands on the north Australian coast has a novel way of carrying its young. You will see a mother rat scurrying along with one or more half-grown babies clinging teeth-and-claw to the fur of its haunches. The added weight does not appear to cause much inconvenience, as the mother can make good time over the ground when hard pressed.

Three Antioch Estates Are Reviewed in Court

Estates of three deceased residents of Antioch were reviewed during proceedings in Lake county probate court during the past week.

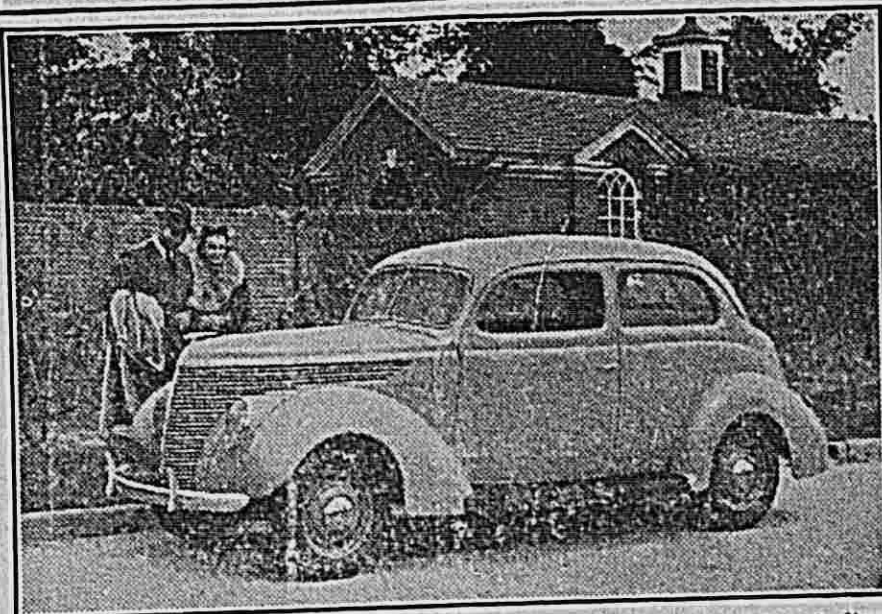

Inventories of the John Schaer and Harry B. Smith estates were given approval and the appraisement bill on the former approved. Hearing was conducted on the estate of Thomas Coole, with final report continued until December 13.

The will of Mary T. Kerr of Lake Villa was admitted to probate during the week's session, the estate of $5,000 personal and $4,000 real estate property going to her sister, nieces and nephews.

SCIENTIST MAKES "MAGIC"

That science can be entertaining as well as dull was proved this morning to Antioch High school students and members of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Glenn L. Morris, an unusual physicist who devotes his talents to entertainment rather than research, presented a program of scientific "sleight-of-hand" performances with an array of laboratory equipment.

1938 Ford V-8 Standard Tudor Sedan

MOST popular of all the Ford V-8 body types is the standard Tudor sedan, shown above. A longer hood, more sweeping lines and newly-designed front end, grille, louvers, fenders and hubcaps are featured. The car is available either with 85 horsepower or 60 horsepower V-8 engine. Interiors are attractively appointed. The front seat is full width. The seat back is divided. The sections are hinged diagonally and swing inward as they are tipped forward so as to leave a wide passageway on either side for entrance to the rear seat. Like all Ford body types the Tudor sedan has a large built-in luggage compartment. The standard cars are engineered for owners who demand the maximum of economy in first cost and operating cost.

Nine Plan to Attend Student Council Parley

Nine members of the high school student council will go to Waukegan Saturday to attend the Suburban District meeting of Student Councils.

Ministers of County Organize Association

Last Monday, Rev. Warren C. Henslee and S. E. Pollock met with ministers of Fox Lake, Lake Villa, Grayslake and Richmond, at Fox Lake High school for organization of what is to be known as the Lakes Region Ministerial Association.

The following officers were elected: Rev. R. H. Laury, Fox Lake, president; Rev. Otto Scheibe, Grayslake, vice president; and Rev. Ira B. Allen, Lake Villa, secretary-treasurer.

Fox Lake High school was chosen as a permanent place of meeting.

All ministers of all denominations in the Lakes Region have been invited to become members. The next meeting will be on Dec. 20. Regular meetings will be held on the last Monday of each month.

Northwest Conference Officials Will Gather

Principals and coaches of the 13 member school in the Northwest High School conference will gather at Fox Lake next Wednesday night for their annual fall business meeting. Principal L. O. Bright and Coach Reuben Childers will represent Antioch.

Revision of the conference constitution will be the main business of the meeting, according to Mr. Bright. Many changes have been made in conference procedure, he states, which have not been formally introduced into the by-laws.

ANTIOCH DELEGATES

Mabel Simonsen, president of the high school girls' club, and Miss Cornelia Roberts, dean of girls, will attend the joint meeting of the Suburban Deans' association and the Presidents of Girls' Clubs to be held Saturday at Chicago. The purpose of the gathering will be to lay plans for the annual spring Girls' Club conference.

Three More Red Cross Members Added to List

Three names were added to the Red Cross roll call last week too late to mention in the early edition of the News: Mrs. W. C. Petty, Mrs. Addie Williams and Edward Imboden.

Final tabulations after the close of the campaign showed a total membership of 65 here in Antioch, Mrs. Walter Hills, roll call chairman, announced yesterday, and receipts totaled $75.

Albino Dingo Not Popular
The albino dingo (wild dog) of Australia is not popular among his own kind. This was proved some years ago when the first pure white dingo ever seen in Queensland was captured alive. The animal was placed in a cage with other dingoes that were in captivity. On the following morning the albino animal was found dead, having been torn to pieces.
